COMMISSION ON MEXICAN PROBLEMS DISBANDED

By Associated Press.

New York, Jan. 15.—The Mexican-American joint commission, which failed to effect an adjustment of questions at issue between Mexico and the United States after a series of conferences that began four months ago, formally dissolved today.

The Americans impressed upon the Mexicans that with the dissolution of the commission the Mexican problem reverted to President Wilson. They were careful not to leave in the minds of the Mexicans the conviction that President Wilson would accept the recommendation that an accredited diplomat be sent to Mexico and that General Pershing's force be withdrawn but the intimation that he would do so was conveyed.

In spite of the Americans' care, however, the Mexicans had little doubt tonight that the diplomatic relations between the two governments soon would be resumed and that unless unexpected complications arise American troops will be removed from Mexican territory within a few days. The probability of such action was included in the report of the last meeting which was telegraphed to General Carranza at Queretaro.

MEXICAN LEADERS TO LEAVE FOR MEXICO.

Luis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican commission and Ignacio Bonillas and Alberto J. Pani, the other members said they expected to leave within a week or ten days for Mexico. Mr. Cabrera and Mr. Bonillas will resume their places as members of General Carranza's cabinet and Mr. Pani as director general of the government railways. Notwithstanding the dissolution of the commission they expressed themselves as pleased with the result, pointing out that with the withdrawal of the American troops the main object of Carranza in sending them here would be accomplished.

The last session of the joint commission continued throughout the latter half of the day. The American commissioners explained to the Mexican representatives that they regarded further discussions by them of international questions impracticable. Twice General Carranza had refused to ratify the protocol signed at Atlantic City, N. J., and that refusal the Americans construed as indicative of what might be expected if the conferences were continued.

It was pointed out to them that the maintenance of an ambassador in Mexico would remove cause for the existence of a commission since all international questions pending or any that might arise might then be handled through diplomatic channels. It was explained to them that with the dissolution of the commission the president would be free to act independently in the problem presented by the presence in Mexico of an American military force.

EXPRESS REGRET THAT CONFERENCE ENDS.

The Mexicans expressed regret that the conferences had been brought to an end but they too admitted that further discussion appeared to be useless and no effort to have them prolonged was made.

No direct reference was made in the final session to what the attitude of the United States would be in the event the American troops are withdrawn and new raids across the border by Mexicans are made but neither was there any modification made in the warning of Secretary Lane that the government reserved the right to unlimited and unrestricted pursuit of bandits.

WORK NOT REGARDED AS FAILURE.

The American commissioners declared they did not regard the work of the commission as a failure since a clearer understanding of conditions affecting both governments had been reached.

The creation of an international court of claims for the adjudication of property losses incurred since the revolution against Porfirio Diaz, the protection of life and property of foreigners and the means for bettering conditions along the border, especially in preventing the fostering of the American side of revolutionary movements were subjects discussed today. They were talked over not with the idea of entering into any agreement but for a clearer understanding of the opinions of the men on both commissions in order that a report on them might be made to their respective governments.

Secretary Lane left tonight for Washington where it is expected he will take to the president a report of the last meeting of the commission.

Lawson Claims Chairman Henry Revealed Secret

Washington, Jan. 15.—Thomas W. Lawson hauled before the house rules committee to tell what he knew or had heard about a stock market leak on President Wilson's peace note or be punished, calmly declared today that the mysterious congressman who told him a cabinet officer, a senator and a banker were engaged in a stock gambling pool was none other than Representative Henry, chairman of the committee.

Before the hearers had time to recover from the shock, Lawson sprang one sensation after the other by declaring that the cabinet officer referred to was Secretary McAdoo; that the banker was H. Pliny Fiske of New York, and that he knew the senator only by the initial "O."

To complete the explosion, Lawson went on to charge that Paul M. Warburg, of the federal reserve board, had knowledge of the leak machinery, repeated a rumor that Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, had made two million dollars in the stock market, and to mention a list of well known men whom he thought should be questioned. The committee promptly issued subpoenas for all of them.

Mr. Lawson said he had been told that Malcolm McAdoo, the secretary's brother, knew of the leak, as did C. D. Barney and company and Stewart G. Gibbons of New York. A Mrs. Ruth Thomas Visconti of this city, he said, had declared to him in the presence of her attorney that Secretary Tumulty "received his bit" and that W. W. Price, one of the white house correspondents, was "the go-between for Tumulty and others." H. Pliny Fiske, Lawson said, was the banker he referred to previously as dominating a cabinet officer, and Archibald S. White, he said, had given him this information.

Representative Henry was said by Lawson to have told him at the conference that preceded the opening of the leak investigation of reports connecting the cabinet officer, banker and senator and also told him of reports that Secretary Lansing had been seen conferring with Barnard Harbo, the Wall Street operator said to have made a clean-up on the falling market which accompanied the peace note.

Lawson declared Henry had asked him on patriotic grounds not to press his charges. At no time, the Boston financier said, did he ever say he had direct information.

HENRY DENIES ALL OF LAWSON'S TESTIMONY.

When Lawson had finished his recital Chairman Henry took the stand and swore that at no time had he mentioned Lawson the names the financier brought out on the witness stand; that he had no information then and had none now of his own knowledge, and denied generally and completely all of Lawson's testimony relating to him.

When he had concluded Lawson roared and solemnly declared that every word he had uttered on the stand was the "truth so help me God, without variation."

To back up Lawson said that immediately after leaving Henry at their

GERMANY ASKED IF DIPLOMATS TOLD TO LEAVE BUCHAREST

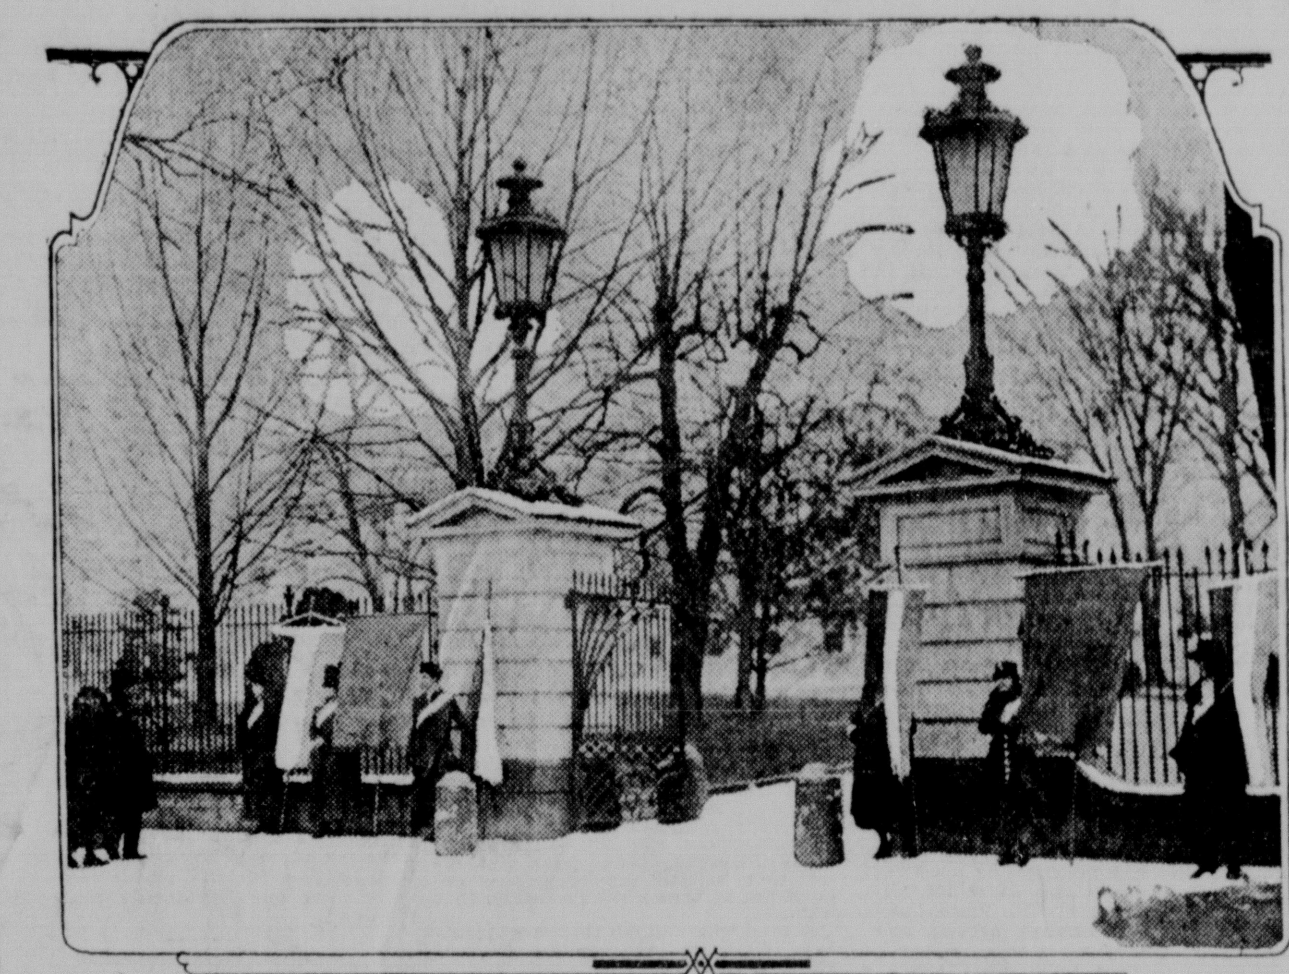

Washington, Jan. 15.—Inquiry was addressed to Germany today by the state department as to the truth of press reports that German authorities had asked all neutral diplomats to leave Bucharest, and had provided for that purpose a special train. Official information is desired so American Minister Voelckers can be instructed to leave Bucharest. No instructions have been sent him since he was ordered at the time of the fall of Bucharest to stay in Rumania.

Officials are at a loss to understand why the German government should wish to send the whole neutral diplomatic corps out of the captured Rumanian capital though it is admitted that she has the legal right to do so.

Diplomacy offers little precedent for such a request as Germany's.

Each of the two Pennsylvania avenue entrances to the White House is being picketed by six members of the Congressional Union, each of whom holds a banner with the inscription: "Mr. President, what will you do for woman suffrage." The pickets will be on duty from 9 to 5 each day, the individuals being relieved at frequent intervals.

Says Peace Is Not Near

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Sunday, Jan. 14, by Wireless to the Associated Press via Sayville.—Dr. Zimmerman, the German foreign minister, informed the Associated Press today that in his opinion the entente reply to President Wilson's peace note bars the possibility for the present of further German steps to bring about peace. In particular he said it precluded any direct announcement by Germany of her peace conditions, in answer to the terms set forth in the latest entente note.

Dr. Zimmerman asserted, however, that the answer of the entente to the president did not finally and completely close the door to later efforts for peace before one side or the other was completely crushed.

The foreign minister in the course of a conversation with the Associated Press correspondent last night, declared although the obvious reluctance that it was impossible for him to give a more definite statement of the peace program of the central powers than that indicated in the declarations of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the chancellor, because the German terms were such that the unsolicited promulgation of them in their moderate details after what he characterized as the aspiring program of conquest and dismemberment outlined by the entente would be interpreted by the entente powers as a sign of weakness and of a desire for peace at any cost.

EXCLUDES POSSIBILITY FOR PEACE AT PRESENT.

Publication of the peace terms of the central powers therefore would defeat its very purpose, said Dr. Zimmerman. The foreign minister expressed doubt whether after what he described as the rebuff to President Wilson's peace efforts given in the reply of the entente the president could take any further action for the present, adding that the entente answer excluded for the present any possibility of peace.

Expressing a profound conviction that the program of the entente powers never could be carried into effect, Dr. Zimmerman intimated that a failure of the entente's offensive this year which he expected, might again make it possible to approach the subject of peace on reasonable terms and with some prospect of success.

Dr. Zimmerman said he could obviously see the advantages from one point of view in declaring Germany's terms and letting the world see by contrast with those to which the entente powers have committed themselves the real state of affairs, but seemed to be convinced that such advantages were not sufficient to effect the attitude of the entente powers or to outweigh the effect on opinion in enemy countries of the announcement of peace.

OFFERS TO FINANCE AND BUILD WACO TO BEAUMONT RAILROAD

By Associated Press.

Offering to finance and build the line of railroad from Waco to Beaumont in case the propositions "look good" on examination, a letter has been received by Sec. H. D. Driscoll of the Waco Chamber of Commerce from J. A. Frates, a railroad builder of Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. Frates stated that he has built and operated several short lines of railroad in Oklahoma, and that he could and would handle the matter if it proved attractive between Waco and Beaumont.

A letter will be sent Mr. Frates telling him that the matter not only looked good, but exceedingly so, and that if he is hunting for a proposition which actually offers practical returns on money expended, to look over the line from Waco to Beaumont.

Much interest is felt in Waco over developments which may follow the meeting of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce on January 15, this being the annual meeting, and it was decided yesterday that Abe Gross of Waco will be one of the speakers to represent Waco. President Wilson Gross will go to Beaumont tomorrow night and will be accompanied by W. V. Crawford and Secretary Driscoll.

Telegrams are passing between Waco and Beaumont now regarding this meeting.

Wilson Asked to Overrule Orders of Funston

Washington, Jan. 15.—Complaints that Major General Funston refused to permit a Baptist preacher to conduct services among the soldiers on the Mexican border except on condition that the men were not to be told they were "lost," reached President Wilson today in the form of resolutions presented by representatives of the Virginia Baptist association. The president was told that General Funston, assuming the role of theological censor, had said revivals were not desired in camp and the resolutions asked that the general be overruled. General Funston had stated that his attitude was misrepresented by the ministers.

SPANELL CASE SENSATION IN TEXAS

About twenty-five witnesses from Waco will leave for the Spanell trial at San Angelo tomorrow night from the Cotton Belt depot at 8:30 o'clock. J. R. Bailey stated last night that all witnesses subpoenaed had been bought tickets and a special Pullman car provided for them.

Special to The News.

San Angelo, Tex., Jan. 15.—Trial of J. H. Spanell, charged with selling his wife and Major M. C. Butler of the United States army while the three were riding in an automobile at Alpine, Texas, last July 20, was postponed when called in court this morning until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The action was taken because witnesses for the defense were not in readiness.

Court was called to order at 10 o'clock. Judge C. E. DuBoise presiding. All attorneys for both the state and the defense were present. The state announced ready for trial. Everyone who entered the court room was searched by the sheriff and all soldiers were required to surrender their arms before being admitted inside.

The case was brought to this city on a change of venue. The motive for the killings is a mystery.

Spanell had invited the army officer to take an automobile ride with him and Mrs. Spanell. Spanell occupied the front seat and Major Butler and Mrs. Spanell were in the tonneau.

Suddenly the husband drew an automatic pistol, whirled about in the rear seat and shot the woman.

After an army commission had investigated and reported that Butler had been "killed in the performance of his duty," Butler was exonerated by the government and elevated on the army records to the rank of colonel, so his widow and daughter might have a large pension.

SUPREME COURT IN DECISION DEFINES WHITE SLAVE LAW

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The federal white slave law was construed by the supreme court today to prohibit interstate transportation of women for any immoral purpose, including private escapades as well as commercialized vice.

In three test cases the court in a divided opinion affirmed convictions of E. Drew Caminetti and Maury I. Dicks, of Sacramento, Cal., and L. T. Hays of Alva, Okla. Their imprisonment sentences and fines will become effective within thirty days.

The court divided five to three, in broadly interpreting the law enacted in 1910. Chief Justice White and Justices McKenna and Clarke in a minority opinion held that congress intended to have the law apply only to actual "trafficking" in women and not to personal immoralities.

Reynolds, who was attorney general during prosecution of Caminetti and Dicks, took no part in the cases.

The majority opinion given by Justice Day, held that while congress may have intended the law to prohibit only traffic in women for pecuniary gain, its plain terms include interdiction of their transportation "for any other immoral purpose." If it was not so intended the majority said, it was congress' function—not the courts—to amend the law.

Wider scope in enforcing the law is now open to the department of justice which contended for the broader interpretation. The ruling affects many pending cases, including that of Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, who is a fugitive from justice.

Whether the law makes "accomplices" of women involved in personal escapades was not definitely decided by the court but their testimony against men indicted was upheld as permissible.

In the test cases Caminetti was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment and fined $1,500. Dicks to two years and a $2,000 fine, and Hays to eighteen months in prison.

HER IMPROVEMENT IS NOW THE TALK OF HER NEIGHBORHOOD

"I COULDN'T TELL THE TALK I'VE FELT AS WELL AS I DO NOW," SAYS MRS. BALL—SUFFERED WITH NERVOUSNESS NEARLY ALL HER LIFE.

"My neighbors are all asking me here lately what it is that's making me look so much better and when I tell them Tanlac, they seem to understand," said Mrs. Mattie Ball, 2510 Gentry street, Houston, in an interesting interview with the Tanlac representative a few days ago.

"Nearly all my life," continued Mrs. Ball, "I have been of a very nervous disposition. The trouble kept getting worse as I grew older and finally my stomach got out of order and for several years I suffered from indigestion in its most aggravating form. I suffered awful distress in my stomach and severe pains in my back around my kidneys and all down my left side. I don't believe there was a part of my body that didn't ache.

"I got so I had to be very careful about my eating and would eat only a few days at a time without eating hardly a thing trying to avoid the terrible suffering, and even then I would be so nervous and in so much misery I would just have to go to bed and have to stay there for long time. All last summer I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep and I had such awful headaches, continually, that I could hardly stand them. My husband says I took everything in the way of medicine that was advertised in the almanac, but the first relief I got was when I commenced taking Tanlac.

"We had read of the wonderful good Tanlac was doing other people in Houston and thought it would suit my case, but never dreamed that it would do so much for me in so short a time. But it was just what I have been needing so long and I felt my troubles leaving me in just a few days after I began using it. When I finished my third bottle I was practically a well woman, but to make sure, as I had suffered so much and so long, I kept taking it until I took five bottles. Since then I have been eating just anything I want—many things I wouldn't dare touch before—and when I weighed I found that I had gained ten pounds in weight, too. My nerves are calm and steady now and I sleep better than I have in many years. All the pains in my back and sides, and those terrible headaches and every sign of indigestion is gone since I took Tanlac. In fact, all my miserable feelings have left me and my recovery is the talk of the neighborhood. I just couldn't tell the day when I felt as strong and well as I do now and that's enough to make me praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Waco by Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store, under the personal direction of the special Tanlac representative—Adv.

If Stomach Hurts Drink Hot Water

A Physician's Advice.

"If dyspepsia, sufferers from gas, wind or flatulence, stomach acidity, nervousness, gastric catarrh, heartburn, etc., would take a teaspoonful of pure bisulphated magnesia in half a glass of hot water immediately after eating, they would soon forget they were ever afflicted with stomach trouble, and doctors would have to look elsewhere for patients. In explanation of these words a well known New York physician stated that most forms of stomach trouble are due to stomach acidity and fermentation of the food contents of the stomach combined with an insufficient blood supply to the stomach. Hot water increases the blood supply and bisulphated magnesia instantly neutralizes the excessive stomach acid and stops food fermentation. The result is a healthy two, therefore, being marvellously successful and decidedly preferable to the use of artificial digestives, stimulants or medicines for indigestion."

by the speaker, and the oath is administered to each the governor and the lieutenant governor, usually by a justice of the supreme court. Upon this occasion it will be administered by Chief Justice Nelson Phillips, and the officers will kiss a Bible, which has been a use in the state's highest court since the days of the Republic and which has been used in the inaugural ceremonies for many years.

GOVERNOR'S TALK USUALLY SHORT.

Both the governor and the lieutenant governor will deliver inaugural addresses. Usually the governor's address is very long and the lieutenant governor's very short. The present governor, however, rarely makes long addresses, and the lieutenant governor never.

With these addresses the inaugural ceremonies close, except for the reception and hall giving in the state capitol tomorrow night.

These events will be largely attended by prominent persons from all parts of the state. The reception is held in the senate chamber, and at its close, the governor and his party will start the grand march, going to the hall of representatives, where the ball is held. The march will be headed by Governor and Mrs. Ferguson, Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Hobbs, followed by other officers of the state and their wives, former governors and the like.

The hosts for the occasion tomorrow night are the citizens of Austin, whose invitation reads:

"The citizens of Austin request the pleasure of the company of yourself and ladies at a reception and ball in honor of the inauguration of his excellency James E. Ferguson, Governor of Texas, Tuesday evening, Jan. 16, 1917, at 9 o'clock, State Capitol."

Formerly it was the custom to give these receptions and balls only when a new governor was to be installed. With the inauguration of Governor Colquitt for a second term, the precedent was set of ceremonially observing all gubernatorial installations.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR INAUGURATION.

Arrangements for the inauguration were made by a joint committee consisting of representatives Woods, Clark, Canales, Neill and Miller on the part of the house, and Senators Woodruff, Baird and Gibson on the part of the senate. The members of this committee will be assigned to seats on the platform.

Preparations for the inaugural ball tomorrow night are complete with the exception of the decoration of the hall of the house of representatives and the senate chamber but that work is well under way, being supervised by a committee of Austin citizens, of which C. H. Page is chairman. Mr. Page has the distinction of having served as chairman of the committee on decoration for inaugural balls given Governors Sayers, Lanham, Campbell, Colquitt and Ferguson. The decorations for the second inaugural of Governor Ferguson are to be even more lavish than any of the preceding inaugurals.

former conference he laid his information before John O'Hara Cosgrove, Sunday editor of the New York World; Edmund J. Ridgway, president of Everybody's Magazine, and Donald McDonald, publisher of a Boston financial paper.

"Call these men," he demanded, "and they will bear me out, in what I say. Almost in tears at Henry's absolute denial of his statements, Lawson said: 'I'll make good here and I won't go to jail as yet.'"

Secretaries McAdoo and Tumulty and Mr. Price at once issued statements denying the charges. The committee promptly ordered subpoenas for Ridgway, Cosgrove, Warburg, Fluke, Price, White, Malcolm McAdoo, and Harvey & Co. Mrs. Visconti and John R. Rath, editor of the Providence Journal, who published some articles about the matter, also were subpoenaed.

With that the committee adjourned until tomorrow, to resume its hearing on the most dramatic charges of scandal the capital has seen in many years.

Today's sensational proceedings disposed of the elaborate preparations for holding Lawson in contempt of the house for the second time at the committee at the previous hearing.

A great crowd was packed into the room where Lawson arrived. Police cleared an entrance for him.

LAWSON AGREES TO ANSWER QUESTIONS.

With sets of fourteen questions before him, prepared by Representative Lenroot, Chairman Henry began to question Lawson. When he had completed his first question demanding the name of the congressman who Lawson said told him of a cabinet officer, a member of congress and a banker who had been connected with the "leak," and also their names, Lawson rose and said he desired to make a statement.

"I am going to answer your questions," he began significantly.

The crowd, which up to that time had visions of Lawson being placed in the custody of an officer on contempt charges, settled back with an obvious temporary loss of interest.

Lawson insisted that he first be permitted to make a statement setting forth that it was against his wishes to give the names of public Chairman Henry insisted, however, that Lawson should answer the question and he said he would later be given an opportunity to make any statement he desired.

Despite the decision of the chairman, Lawson insisted on making statements and pleaded for an opportunity first to present his information in secret.

ASKS COMMITTEE TO TAKE NAMES IN CONFIDENCE.

"May I not have just a word," he asked in pleading tones, "I will be short and to the point. It seems to me you owe it to me to allow me to state things which I think are absolutely necessary. I am going to answer your questions if I am not to be asked to make one more appeal before I answer."

"I stated before that my reasons for refusing to give the information I have were that publication of names might lead to the destruction of evidence, also that a member of congress had convinced me that the matter was serious to the nation and the administration."

public. I don't want to quibble and I don't want to refuse."

SAYS HENRY GAVE HIM NAMES.

Here the committee held a brief whispered conversation and Chairman Henry announced that the witness should answer the questions publicly.

Lawson looked at the committee sternly, squared himself in his chair and said in a voice scarcely audible:

"Chairman Henry, of your committee, is the congressman who gave me the names."

The room hummed with excitement. Members of the committee, although they had heard rumors that Lawson might connect Henry's name with his charges, shifted in their chairs. Lawson, silent and grave, looked straight ahead at the chairman. Mr. Henry, without a sign of perturbation, waited a moment for the buzzing to subside and then deliberately proceeded to read the next question formulated by the committee.

It was merely an elaboration of the first put in slightly different language, referring to the fact that it made no difference whether the information came to him as rumor or gossip and brought a relaxation from Lawson said that Representative Henry had given him the information in Henry's office in the capitol on January 2.

THIRD QUESTION IS ANSWERED.

The third question called attention to Lawson's statement that he had been told by a broker that a New York banker, a cabinet officer and a senator had a joint stock brokerage account and directed that he tell the committee the name of the man who had given him that information.

The distinction of having served as chairman of the committee on decoration for inaugural balls given Governors Sayers, Lanham, Campbell, Colquitt and Ferguson. The decorations for the second inaugural of Governor Ferguson are to be even more lavish than any of the preceding inaugurals.

It was in answering the next question as to other persons who had given him evidence in substantiation of his various statements that Lawson brought in the names of Secretary Tumulty and William W. Price, White House correspondent of the Washington Star. He said he received a letter from a Washington woman, Ruth Thomson Vincini, saying in part:

"My dear Mr. Lawson: If the name of the man who was the go-between in the present leak referred to in attorney, whose money he of assistance to you, I can supply the name and the amount he received. If you are interested, I will make an appointment to meet you at such a place as you may designate."

NO REFERENCE MADE TO AMOUNT OF MONEY.

The letter further requested that Lawson hold the information in the strictest confidence and he did not proceed further in the matter.

Lawson then testified he made an appointment with Mrs. Visconti, who came to his apartment with the name of the man he could not recall. After a long conference he said Mrs. Visconti told him that Mr. Price had a part in the leak affair between Secretary Tumulty and others.

No reference was made either by Lawson or the committee to the amount of money referred to in Mrs. Visconti's letter.

Asked to whom he referred as the alleged senator, alleged banker and an alleged member of the cabinet, Lawson said he remembered Secretary Tumulty, the cabinet member, H. Pinney Fluke, the banker, and the senator was a man whom he had heard referred to as "Senator O'G."

This information Lawson said came from one source and was corroborated by another. He was not asked for the source of the information.

Chairman Henry proceeded to the next question.

The seventh question asking to whom Lawson referred by saying a member of congress had given him three names of persons reported to have been involved in the deal for the third time brought the reply:

"Chairman Henry, of your committee, were virtually the same."

Lawson then was asked if he had any other information in relation to his insinuations that "another high official of the government had information regarding the leak" and that a relative of a cabinet official also had been mentioned.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BLISSFUL OR CONSTIPATED

LOOK MOTHER! IF TONGUE IS COATED GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a healthy, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

SAYS PEACE IS NOT NEAR

nouncement of the terms regarding Belgium and the others in this war.

PEACE MAY COME AFTER INTERVAL.

To the question as to whether he saw the possibility of Germany making such a proposition, he replied that he should a further inquiry be made from the neutral side for example, by President Wilson, the minister replied critically: "But will he make such an inquiry after the entente reply which in its nature is, shall we say, insulting?"

"Do you think after an interval there will be any possibility of an offer of mediation for peace being accepted by both sides?" the minister was asked.

"Yes," he replied, "the desire for peace of all the peoples—peoples, mind you, I say, not governments—is so strong that after the entente has had another try with a new offensive, there has seen the fruitfulness of all the endeavors to crush the military strength of the central powers, there may be a better possibility of negotiating a satisfactory and reasonable peace."

WAR MAY BE FOUGHT TO BITTER END.

"Of course, if the entente powers persist in trying to execute their program the war must be fought out to the bitter end. There is not a German who would not rather die than see the accomplishment of the announced intention of the entente powers with respect to Germany, to see German provinces with predominant German populations torn from the German empire, and united Germany which our fathers so labored to achieve, torn asunder and the country reduced as the allies have plainly announced as their ambition, to a condition of subjection to remove local powers of Europe."

The conditions for Austria-Hungary are even more difficult. Its dismemberment to satisfy the passion for territorial aggrandizement of Russia, Italy, Serbia and Rumania would leave the state not even a third rate power, while who can say what would be the fate of the redeemed nationalities when brought under the sway of Russia? Bulgaria of course would be bitterly punished and Turkey would practically cease to exist if the plans contemplated in the entente's answer were attained.

A Change Necessary

It would not have occurred to me to offer myself as a candidate for the office of City Health Commissioner had I not thought there was vast room for improvement and that conditions were such as to DEMAND a change in the administration of the office, and I feel that a great majority of the thinking citizens agree with me in the foregoing.

This is not meant as a reflection on the present official, but it is intended to point out the vital necessity of a change in the method of handling serious health conditions.

I am not office hungry, nor do I need the office as a means of existence, BUT I RECOGNIZE THE URGENT NEED THAT NOW FACES THIS CITY. I am young enough and strong enough and feel that I have sense enough to face a strenuous task and carry the work through when necessary.

That I have made my present occupation successful indicates that other things I go at would be properly handled as well. FARNEST HENRY, Political Advertisement.

HERO OF MANILA BAY RUMANIA CONTINUES TO BE WAR CENTER

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 15.—George Dewey, admiral of the navy and hero of Manila bay, is on his death bed. A general breakdown accompanied by arterio sclerosis has shattered the veteran's strength in his eightieth year and tonight he lies at his home here semi-conscious of his sixty-two years of service.

The admiral was stricken last Thursday afternoon while on duty at the navy department, where as president of the general board he has been at his desk almost daily during the past sixteen years of his service.

He collapsed and had to be carried to his bed. When physicians were called they were alarmed, but knowing the admiral's great recuperative powers and his keen aversion of any suggestion of his falling they determined to make no immediate announcement regarding his illness. Inquirers were told the admiral had a cold.

But the great strength of the aged officer had been sapped and there was no recuperation. This morning his condition had become so serious that he decided to state the facts to the public. Later it became known that Admiral Dewey had a severe illness more than a year ago which only his physicians intimates knew and that he never had been the same physically since.

BILL TO AID RURAL SCHOOLS STARTED IN LOWER HOUSE

By Associated Press.

Austin, Jan. 15.—Representative Fly of Gonzales today introduced in the house a bill carrying an appropriation of $2,000,000 for the aid of rural schools in the state. This is a recommendation of Gov. Ferguson and also a platform demand. The money is to be apportioned to the country schools, $1,000,000 during the first and $1,000,000 during the second fiscal year.

The bill is along the same lines as the governor's million dollar rural school measure of the last legislature except that the amount is doubled. The money is to be apportioned under the direction of the state board of education of which the governor is a member. At least 4,000 schools in the rural districts will be benefited under this $2,000,000 appropriation.

ASKS FOR ADDITIONAL $12,000,000 FOR SHIPS

BATTLE CRUISERS CANNOT BE CONSTRUCTED IN LESS THAN FORTY-SIX MONTHS.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Daniels gave the house naval committee today details of his negotiations with private shipbuilders for the four battle cruisers, the result of which has led him to ask an additional appropriation of $12,000,000 to equip government yards to build them.

The hearing showed that the ships will exceed the $16,500,000 limit for hull and machinery, fixed by congress and that they cannot be built under present conditions at any price in less than forty-six months.

Negotiations now are under progress with the Newport News Shipbuilding company, the Cramps, and the New York Shipbuilding company on a basis of $14,625,000 for material and labor, plus $4,500,000 to the Newport News company, and $4,750,000 to the Cramps for overhead and profit.

On that basis the department estimates the companies would make about $1,500,000 on each ship net profit.

Texan Sells Land for $500,000; Oil Struck

By Associated Press.

Houston, Jan. 15.—John Gaillard, once a poor farmer on the banks of the Trinity river, today sold his home-stand on Goose creek, near this city, to the Gulf Production company for $500,000 of which half is cash. The homestead covers 262 acres. A provision is contained in the deed by which Gaillard retains use of one half acre on which stands the family cemetery. The Gaillards have lived on the farm 48 years.

Tampico Residents Expect Attack by Bandits

By Associated Press.

Galveston, Jan. 15.—Residents of Tampico are expecting an attack by Villa forces, according to pipe-line workers who arrived here today. These workers report that there has been no train service at Tampico since January 7, and that all rolling stock of the railroads has been taken over by Villa for military operations out of Torreon.

Miss Mildred Smith Hostess.

Miss Mildred Smith was hostess for the Beau Nots in a very pleasant informal afternoon, with fancy work the pastime as the finale to the moments with a very charming hostess. Mrs. Clifton De Bellevue is to be the club's next hostess.

Idle Hour Club.

Mrs. J. R. Meers was a recent hostess for the club, luncheon being the pastime. Mrs. O. Anderson scored high and Mrs. G. C. Onkes the lowest. A salad plate was offered at the game's conclusion.

For Mrs. S. L. Morris of Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Will D. Williams of Speight street paid compliment to Mrs. S. L. Morris of Atlanta, Ga., with a delightful dinner company assembled about a table beautiful with ferns and pink blossoms. This parting courtesy for Mrs. Morris, who is leaving Wednesday was enjoyed by Mesdames F. B. Williams, Mattie Roberts, Richard Burleson, S. L. Morris and the hostess' sons, Clarence and Kingsley Williams.

The Priscillas With Mrs. John Hamilton.

Enjoying their traditional good time within the home of Mrs. John Hamilton of Washington street, the Priscillas met on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hamilton's luncheon feature was pronounced most delicious by an unusually large gathering of the Priscillas. Mesdames Charles Hamilton and H. C. Lindsey enjoyed this hospitality as the only guests of the hostess.

With Mesdames Casey and Barrett.

At the home of Mrs. Floyd Casey the Young Married Ladies' class of the Brook Avenue Sunday school was entertained by Mesdames Floyd Casey and Barrett. After an interesting program daily refreshments were served. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Mesdames H. Caldwell, J. C. Killgore, J. W. Hearne, J. A. Kibbles, McCord, T. W. Shimmings, L. D. Gordon, Paul Young, W. L. Souther, T. L. Agerton, E. C. Cannon, P. F. Walsh, S. J. T. Smith, J. C. Stewart, T. E. Cooper, J. E. Billington, Z. F. Cunningham and M. E. Ham; Mesdames Rowena Caldwell and Juell Johnson.

Business and Social Meeting.

Class No. 13 of the Fifth Street Sunday school had their regular monthly business meeting with Mrs. W. E. Corkhuff. Dr. John Morris led the devotional in the absence of Mrs. Jno. M. Killough, by reading the twenty-sixth Psalm, previous to the regular business of the meeting. Dr. Morris made a talk to the class, telling them what he expected of them this year. Mrs. J. J. Potts addressed the class on the subject, "What the Sunday School Means to a Mother," which was very much enjoyed by all present. The Evangelistic meeting was announced for February and Mesdames O'Donohoe, Christolm and Killough were appointed as a committee.

For Mrs. S. C. Lattimore.

Mrs. C. G. Faust entertained with a dinner party, complimenting her mother, Mrs. S. C. Lattimore, on her birthday. The table was centered with a cluster of American beauty roses—the gift of her son, Senator Lattimore of Fort Worth, who was present. At the table were Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Spencer of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Purves of Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Higginbotham of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Lanham Higginbotham of Lubbock, Mrs. N. E. Bogges of Dallas, J. M. Higginbotham, Jr., of Dallas.

Neighborhood Bunco Party.

Mrs. J. Hayman was a recent hostess for a neighborhood party in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Michaelson of Dallas. During the game home made candy was served. The favors were a box of stationery for Mrs. Louis Rosen, hand embroidered handkerchiefs for the honoree, Mrs. Michaelson and the consolation to Mrs. Ben Adelman. Mesdames Hannah Friedman, Ray Marks and Sarah Rosenberg received the guests. Mesdames E. Rosen and Sam Marks assisted in serving the delicious punch. Mrs. Louis Gorin kept the scores for the five tables. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Michaelson, Mesdames Sam Marks, Abe Gans, Louis Gorin, Louis Rosen, Ben Adelman, Ben Kaplan, I. Segall, H. Swartz, Wildfield of New York, Sam Wildfield, E. Rosenberg; Mesdames Sarah Rosenberg, Lena Adelman, Ray Marks, Lilly Fred and Goldberg.

Get in the Library "Slogan" Contest.

For the purpose of getting more people—especially men—to use the Waco public library, the week of February 4 to 10 has been designated as "Library Week," and during that week the local publicity men, headed by the Waco Ad club, will exhaust every means known to their profession in a campaign of advertising and education regarding the house of books at Twelfth and Austin streets.

If you have not done so, those desiring to submit slogans in competition for the Lions club prize should bring or mail the letter to the Waco public library, or to Rev. F. N. Calvin, chairman of the Lions club committee. Slogans should be brief and to the point, and should emphasize some feature of the library or its service. A good slogan, now used by the public library of Toledo, Ohio, is "Learn More, Earn More." Other slogans are "He Succeeds—He Reads," and "A Book for Every Reader, a Reader for Every Book."

It is hoped that the slogan contest will bring some excellent phrases, from among which a suitable slogan for the local library can be selected. All slogans must be in the hands of the committee not later than Saturday night, January 20, so that the winning slogan may be selected in time to be used in the advertising for library week.

Two interesting prize contests have been started, one being an offer of $10 by the Waco Ad club for the best poster advertising the library, and the other a prize of $5 by the Lions club.

Bridge Compliment of Saturday.

Honoring Mesdames R. M. Baine of Galveston and Chas. Langhorn of Virginia, two popular visitors in the city, Miss Decca Lamar West was hostess at the close of the past week for six tables of bridge in her home, "Minglewood," at which long stemmed mahogany bud vases holding carnations were captured for top score by Mrs. Frank Clark and Miss Minnie Killough in consolation cut. Miss Dorothy Finley and little Virginia West assisted the hostess in serving a delightful salad course. The honorees will take with them to their homes as reminders of the pleasant occasion, silver filigree toilet water bottles, presented to them by the hostess. The guests were Mesdames R. M. Baine of Galveston, Chas. Langhorn of Virginia, Lee Dewey, J. L. Burgess, Mary West Beatty, W. J. Neale, Pio Crespi, E. A. Sturgis, Quilman Finley, Mattie D. Willis, Lucy Star Grider, Frank Clark, J. A. Early, Camille Franklin, Reeves Halsey, Howell McCullough, William H. Talley, J. P. Massie, Stark West, J. D. Williams.

FARM LOAN BANK OFFICERS.

Rumor says that M. H. Gossett, an attorney and rich man, of Dallas, will be president and lieutenant governor.
Hobby will be treasurer of the farm
loan bank to be established at Houston. When he was in politics and a member of the legislature, Mr. Gossett was commonly known as "Ham" Gossett. He was a zealous supporter of Gov. Hogg in all the campaigns made by the latter, and enjoys excellent standing as a citizen and as a lawyer.

Mr. Hobby has achieved marked success in the realm of journalism and of politics. His resignation as lieutenant governor would necessarily follow, when the bank shall be put in operation. Both of these appointments, if this report shall be confirmed, will be generally approved in Texas.

In a gloomy forecast of the imminent danger to the American nation because of its reckless ignoring of the dangers that beset it, Mr. Lindley M.
Garrison, late secretary of war, fears
we must "mourn in sackcloth and ashes" for our folly and improvidence.
"In that day," he goes on to say, "the execration heaped upon those who led the nation astray will differ in degree only upon those who saw the light and knew the way, but had hearts too faint to lead on the proper way." This is self-condemnation from Mr. Garrison. He was secretary of war, and in that station he foresaw
the danger and sounded a warning.
When his warning fell on deaf ears,
he quit in a pet. A really strong man would have maintained his position and contended for his convictions. He was one of the men who saw the light,
but who lacked staying and fighting qualities.

Much self-laudation is indulged in
by us Texans because the department of agriculture gives out figures attesting the fact that we grew and sold more of the products of the earth in 1916 than any other state. When we analyze these figures we have good reason to ask ourselves if we have not better cause for self-condemnation
than exaltation for not doing better than we did. It was the cotton crop, of course, that gave us our big lead.
The cotton crop of the country as a whole was cut short by hostile natural forces, and high prices ensued. Texas escaped the misfortunes that visited the other cotton-raising states, and raised a bigger crop than usual. A large yield and high prices brought us great riches. This came not through any superior intelligence, foresight or industry among our people, but is a gain from the bounty of providence.
Our profit is at the expense of our fellow-citizens of the South. If they had not failed, we would not have succeeded so well. Can we afford to rejoice in fortune that comes from the misfortune of others?

Representative Terrell has a purpose
in mind to do away with useless offices. He says the state can be as efficiently served by abolishing some of the commissions that provide places and pay for patriots, and joining the duties with those of the departments of the state government with which they are properly connected, with a clerk to do the work, under supervision of the chief of the department.
It is in the line of economy, but call
you this backing your friends?

The news from Washington unmistakeably forecasts the early withdrawal of the punitive expedition from Mexico. American members of the Mexican-American commission stoutly refused to concede to Carranza the demand that Pershing should leave Mexico before he would sign the protocol offered him by the commission. Withdrawal of the American forces will be a victory for the first chief, for it assures him the substance of his demands by getting rid of the irritating
presence of the unwelcome Yankees.
He gains his ends, no matter by what process.

Reckless of consequences, Colorado wants the farm loan law, amended
so as to add another to the twelve districts now provided by the law,
and she asks to be the center of the thirteenth district. Thirteen is an unlucky number only when it fails to give us something we want.

Marlin, Jan. 15.—Plans for the Spring
Style Show which is to be held here in March, are being completed by a special committee in charge of the project and every effort is being put forth to make it a wonderful success
in every particular.

The committee is working as a unity
and no effort will be spared that will add to the attraction and success of Marlin's initial style show. The garments will be shown on living models
selected from the attractive and beautiful girls of the city and if the weather permits, the show will be held in open air and on one of the principal business streets of the city. Interest will be added by having eye attractions in the form of vaudeville acts, etc., at intervals between the appearance of the living models.

An automobile show will be held in connection with this attraction and booths for the display of automobiles and accessories will be provided for each of the dealers of the city. This will be a distinct feature of the show
and both will be done the "Marlin Way" which insures an attraction equal to the best and meriting the attendance of the entire citizenship of the county.

Two representatives will be sent to Austin by the local Commercial club
to attend the Good Roads Conference to be held there Wednesday and Thursday. On account of its location on the King's Highway running from Canada to the gulf, Marlin and Falls county will share in the appropriation of the federal government for the construction of national highways.
The members of the Texas Good

Roads association in the city are exerting every effort in the interest of this movement and no difficulty in the financing of the county's share of the construction is anticipated.

The returning of four bills against Meredith D. McCann for alleged burglaries in Marlin in August and September for the last year by the Falls county grand jury which adjourned until February 12 last Friday, brings nearer the termination of this case.
Through the efforts of City Marshall Frank Stalleworth and after a chase over part of Texas, McCann was arrested and placed in the city jail for connection with the burglary of a residence in Marlin.

Practically all of the loot was returned to the rightful owners.
McCann will be tried here in this term of the district court on the four charges.

John Puhlak arrives Sunday afternoon from Corpus Christi for a visit with relatives in Marlin. He is a member of Company F, 3rd Texas regiment and reports everything at Camp
Scurry in excellent condition.

Miss Katie Barrow has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Iredell.

J. D. Gascho and family of El Campo
are visiting in Marlin for the health resort features.

Miss Katie Lee Kennedy is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennedy. Miss Katie Lee is attending Baylor college at Waco.

Y.M.B.L. Committee Undaunted by Bill Proposing Extension of State Railroad to Dallas

Members of the Young Men's Business League committee on the proposed extension of the state railroad from Palestine to Waco are undaunted
by the press announcements yesterday
of the movement of Representative John R. Moore to introduce a bill in the legislature providing for a bond issue of $1,000,000 to carry the railroad to Dallas instead of Waco. The efforts of the Y. M. B. L. to secure this city as the terminal of the proposed extension are already recognized by the interests which would carry the road to Dallas, and look for a fight
in the legislature.

President Robert B. Dupree, chairman of the Y. M. B. L. committee, not in touch with Senator A. R. Mc-Cullum and Representatives W. A.
Poage and Frank M. Fitzpatrick, by telephone yesterday and it was agreed that an amendment would be offered
should the Moore bill be introduced.
The amendment would seek to make Waco the western terminus instead of Dallas. While the Moore bill, as reported to be drafted, contains provisions for an issuance of $1,000,000 worth of bonds, it is not believed that this sum will be necessary with the financial assistance that is expected from the territory traversed.

ARRANGES CONFERENCE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Chairman Dupree also arranged for a conference of representatives of various towns along the proposed route
to be held in Waco on Wednesday, January 24. Judge Blackburn of Groesbeck, who has been greatly interested in the railroad extension, telephoned yesterday that he could bring over several prominent business men from his section to the conference. The Mexico Commercial club volunteered its co-operation in Waco's fight for the railroad last Saturday.

W. W. Naman and R. J. Windrow, who will represent the Y. M. B. L., in some good road matters at Austin this week, will also confer with Central Texas legislators on the railroad project.

Just a Moment Please--

There was more or less skidding on the streets yesterday and Sunday. The surface was very smooth, and auto drivers had to preserve special caution.

The inaugural ball will be held at Austin tonight. Several Waco residents will attend the 100th anniversary ball which planned to attend left yesterday afternoon and others will go today.

Melting of the sleet of Sunday will benefit small grain, which was needing rain. Some of the small grain is looking better since the shower of about ten days ago, this having partially relieved
the need of moisture.

Frances Willard union will meet Thursday afternoon at Austin Avenue Methodist church for prayer service in behalf of national constitutional prohibition. The occasion also will be devoted partially to thanksgiving for the victories which the W. C. T. U. feels have been won in the past.

For the purpose of attending the Episcopal synod of the Province of the Southwest in Little Rock, Arkansas, several persons left Waco yesterday afternoon.

A. D. Jackson Goes to Austin Meeting on Flood Prevention

Seeking to aid the movement to secure favorable action on a constitutional amendment providing means for preventing flood damage and to reclaim lands now made almost worthless by periodical overflows, A. D.
Jackson left Waco yesterday for Austin to attend a meeting there of others interested in the same work.

This meeting was set for yesterday and today, and the plan is to try and get the legislature to submit to the people of Texas a constitutional amendment which will make possible
the work which is planned but which must be done by co-operation which is only possible by suitable legislation.

Work which is planned if case the amendment is submitted and carries,
includes the Brazos, Colorado, Trinity
and many other rivers in Texas.

those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A.
J. Dossert and Capt. C. L. Johnson. Actor W. P. Witsell had intended going,
but owing to sickness in his family could not get away.

A small blaze was found in Labor hall
in the chambers building on South Fourth street yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, but the fire was put out before any special damage was done.

Much interest is felt in Waco in the trial of Harry J. Spannall at San Angelo. Spannall is known to many people here, as he formerly lived in this city.

Morris Jones, who was injured in an auto accident at Lorena Sunday, and who was brought to Providence sanitarium, was getting along nicely yesterday. It was at first thought that he was seriously injured and his skull fractured.
Clitus Jones, a brother of Morris Jones, suffered a sprained shoulder when the machine turned over in turning a corner. The boys are sons of B. R. Jones of Lorena.

Want New Central Office for Waco Fire Department

Efforts to secure a new central office for the fire department of Waco
are being made by City Electrician E. F. Copley, who said yesterday that the present apparatus is now twenty-seven years old, having been installed in 1890.

This central office, as it is called,
is where the fire alarms are first registered. It has been located at the Twelfth street fire station. City Electrician E. F. Copley said that this system is badly worn, from long use,
and another is needed.

He is in touch with parties who are seeking to put in a new system, and the matter is having attention now.

If you are going to heat your house,
why not the best? See our gas burn-

throughout Texas. Mrs. Spanell was a beautiful woman who was respected and admired by a large circle of acquaintances in the very best circles
of society in Texas.

Since the killing Spanell has been held in the county jails in El Paso and San Angelo. When the indictment was returned against him at Alpine in September he was remanded
without bond to the county jail of Tom Green county on a charge of venue
to await his trial.

So far, no eyewitness to the killing
has been found, though the tragedy was enacted while the three were riding in an automobile in a prominent residence portion of the city, just at dark.

Spanell, who was driving the car,
occupied the front seat alone. Mrs.
Spanell and Colonel Butler occupying the rear seat. An automatic pistol and a revolver were used. Both victims were shot several times, death
being instantaneous.

After the shooting Spanell walked
to the county jail and surrendered,
saying to the sheriff: "I have killed them both."

SPANELL HAS YOUNG CHILD.

The married life of the Spanells was seemingly ideal. Their little daughter,
Holland, seven, was their only child.
Just before the tragedy happened, Mr.
and Mrs. Spanell with their little daughter were out driving. They rode up to the Holland hotel and let the little girl out to play with some little girl friends, and invited Colonel Butler to join them for an evening drive.
Eight or ten blocks away the killing occurred.

Mrs. Spanell was formerly Miss Crystal Holland of Alpine. She was the daughter of John R. Holland, who is a prominent doctor and banker
of West Texas. As a student at Baylor university at Waco, she met Span-nell, who was a musical instructor at the university. They were married at Alpine in 1904. She made her home for several years with her husband at Waco. They returned in 1914 to Alpine. She was known as one of the most beautiful young women of West Texas.

BUTLER PROMINENT IN ARMY CIRCLES.

Colonel Butler, who was 50, was a native of South Carolina. He had been promoted to be lieutenant colonel a few days before his death. Colonel Butler was prominent in army circles and had a wide acquaintance. He was stationed at Washington for a period
at the war college. His wife and son, Matthew C. Butler III, survive him.

Spanell was born in Ackermanville, Pa., in 1878, of German descent. He graduated from the Habeton (Pa.)
public schools and worked as mining engineer for the Lehigh Coal Mining company.

He studied music in the Royal Conservatory at Leipzig, returning to the United States in 1901. He came to Texas in 1904 and taught voice in the Baylor university at Waco until 1907, when he resigned.
He became director of the vocal department at Baylor in 1910,
which place he held until he became proprietor of the Holland
hotel in Alpine in 1914.

Many of Spanell's friends in Waco and Alpine have raised money to assist in his defense.
They have employed a corps of able attorneys to defend him. These include A. Dale of El Paso, Lud
Williams of Waco, Lee Lipton and
W. A. Anderson of San Angelo.
Attorneys for the state are W.
Van Sickle of Alpine, Walter Gillis
of Del Rio, W. A. Wright and J.
A. Thomas of Austin. Thomas is district attorney.

Joseph Spanell, 72, father of Harry J., arrived in San Angelo Wednesday and greeted his son for the first time in four years. The elder Spanell is a harness maker for the Lehigh Coal Mining company of Hazleton, Pa.
More than 100 witnesses arrived here
Sunday from Alpine. Persons from Alpine and Waco, who knew the Span-nells during their residence in the two cities, are already beginning to arrive
for the trial.

Cotton Makes Decline of $3 Per Bale

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, Jan. 15.—A decline of about three dollars a bale in cotton under last week's closing prices was the outcome of heavy selling on this market today, due to weather conditions
over the belt and small consumption figures from American mills for December, announced by the census bureau. The slump began with the opening bears attacking prices vigorously.

At the lowest of the day prices went 57 to 65 points down on the active months, following a slight recovery
from the early slump. Closing figures were at a net decline of 57 to 80 points.

KEEP A JAR OF MUSTEROLE HANDY

It Quickly Loosens Up Coughs and Colds in Throat or Chest

Just a little Musterole rubbed on your sore throat before you go to bed
will loosen up congestion and break up
most severe colds and coughs.

Musterole is a clean white ointment made with oil of mustard. Simply rub it on. No plaster necessary. Better than mustard plaster and does not blister.

Thousands who use Musterole will tell
what relief it gives from sore throat,
bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck,
asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion,
pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore
muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet
and colds (it often prevents pneumonia).

A Letter from a Texas Woman

Mrs. May Arnold, residing at 49 W. Plum St., Paris, Texas, is one of many women to endorse Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the wonderful woman's tonic which is without alcohol and made of roots and herbs, and is a safe tonic for any woman to take. She says: "I have used several kinds of medicines and I found that the 'Favorite Prescription' was the only thing that did me any good. I took it and am entirely well. I think it is a fine medicine. I would advise friends who are in bad health to use Dr. Pierce's remedies."

Another woman to testify is Mrs. Josie Hoffman of South 18th St., Corsicana, Texas, who says: "I had been sick for four or five years, and tried doctors but could not get any relief. My local doctor said he could not do me any good unless he could use a knife and I would not give up for an operation. My doctor said that I would die if I did not have an operation, but I began taking Dr. Pierce's medicine. I can gladly say that they cured me sound and well. I will always recommend these medicines to weak women. My doctor said that Dr. Pierce's medicine worked a miracle for me."

Get Favorite Prescription today—either in liquid or tablet form from your druggist if you want to better your physical condition speedily. It is a wonderful prescription prepared only from nature's roots and herbs, with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotic to wreck the nerves. Ingredients on wrapper.

Mrs. Joe Esclavon of 325 Greer St., Beaumont, Texas, also says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and think it is fine medicine. I was sick in bed. I only took one bottle and I have not been sick since. That was over a year ago. I would advise any lady who is in delicate health to use 'Favorite Prescription' and I know she will always praise it to others."

Pleasant Pellets for stomach, liver and bowels, are made up of the May-apple, also leaves and jalap. This well-known pellet was made up nearly fifty years ago, by Dr. Pierce, and can be obtained from almost any apothecary—simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If not obtainable at your dealer's send 25 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will send a vial of pellets to you.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" ENDS ALL STOMACH ACHE IN FIVE MINUTES.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no noisings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

LIGHT-HEARTED WOMEN

A cheerful, light-hearted woman is the joy of a man's life. Beauty will fade, a good figure will change, but the charm of health and cheerfulness will endure to the end. But how can a woman be cheerful and happy when dragged down by some female derangement, with headache, indigestion, and often on the verge of a nervous breakdown?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for such ailments. During the last 40 years thousands of women have been made happy by this woman's great remedy for woman's ills.

How to Relieve Catarrhal Deafness or Head Noises

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parilint (Double Strength). This will not cost you more than 75c. Take this home and add to it 4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar, still undissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dullness cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. If nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh, there must be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple home treatment.

ADDRESSES WACO ROTARIANS

Talk at Y. M. C. A. Last Night Heard by Large Crowd—Hearers Congratulate Speaker.

David G. Latshaw of New York City, thrift expert and international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., began a four days' thrift campaign in Waco yesterday under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Latshaw arrived in Waco from Dallas early yesterday morning, and spent a busy day, addressing the high school students at 9 a. m., the Rotary club at noon, the employees of Sanger Brothers at 6 o'clock, and winding up with a big meeting in the Y. M. C. A. lobby at 8 o'clock last night.

In all his talks, Mr. Latshaw showed himself to be a convincing and entertaining speaker, making a great number of telling points in a few forceful words.

In speaking at the high school Mr. Latshaw gave the definition as follows:

"Industry means earning power. Providence means looking ahead. Economy means saving power. Thrift means a combination of all three." Mr. Latshaw then defined each of these terms.

"In the United States," said Mr. Latshaw, "there are 109 persons out of every 1,000, who have bank accounts, providing for the future. Switzerland, which is first in thrift, has 495 persons out of every 1,000 who have bank accounts and who are providing for themselves and families for the future."

"CIVILIZED MAN LOOKS AHEAD TO THE FUTURE."

In comparing the savage with the civilized man, Mr. Latshaw declared: "The savage lived only from day to day; the civilized man looks ahead. This is the source of civilization."

Speaking to the Rotary club yesterday at noon, Mr. Latshaw said that the saving of money alone is not the object of the thrift campaign, but that there must be a saving in time and work for an efficient basis of any undertaking.

The advisory committee which is directing the thrift campaign is composed of L. J. Davidson, chairman; B. B. Cobb, Rev. D. A. McGuire, F. L. Booth, Rev. F. N. Calvin, W. V. Crawford, S. R. Hamkins and J. W. Carls. Speaking dates which Mr. Latshaw is unable to fill for lack of time are being filled by members of a local speakers' committee, composed of W. W. Woodson, A. C. Patton, L. E. Balne and P. E. McLeary.

Today Mr. Latshaw will make brief thrift talks at the following places: West Avenue school, 10 a. m.; Waco Sash and Door company, noon; Goldstein-Migdal company, 6 p. m.; Young Women's Christian association, at 8 p. m.

ADDRESS AT Y. M. C. A. HEARD BY MANY.

Mr. Latshaw's address at the Y. M. C. A. last night was heard by a large crowd, many of whom remained after the meeting to thank the speaker for his able address, and to congratulate him upon the splendid campaign he is conducting. Mr. Latshaw spoke in part last night as follows:

"It has been said that there are three kinds of altruists—those who want everybody to help them, those who want to help everybody else, and those who take an intelligent interest in their own welfare first and then devote themselves in a great measure to the welfare of those about them. It is the latter sort of people who support the churches, charities, build skyscrapers and forward great industrial enterprises."

"Instead of an altruist, you might call this latter person a thrifty man. His motto of life might be summed up in this wise: 'He makes all he can, to give all he can, to serve all he can.' The educated men of today are coming to be of this type."

"The conservation of men of power and physical force are important considerations in true thrift. Pay envelopes really contain life transformed into so many dollars, although few men

No Need To Rub!

FOR stiff sore muscles apply Sloan's Liniment to the pain or ache, it quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains and bruises are quickly relieved by its use. Cleaner and more promptly effective than musky plasters or ointments, it does not stain the skin or clog the pores.

What kind of a cigarette would YOU call sensible?

Check up and see how nearly this comes to fitting in with your own ideas:—

A SENSIBLE cigarette must taste good. It must be cool and smooth to your throat and tongue. It must be properly mild—mild enough so that you'll feel all right even though you may smoke more than usual.

In short, it must be comfortable. If it isn't, it can't be sensible.

Fatimas are comfortable because of the balance of their Turkish blend. The milder tobaccos in this blend are in such perfect balance with the richer, fuller-flavored leaves as to entirely off-set that uncomfortable, "oily heaviness" found in so many other cigarettes.

You'll notice the difference as soon as you try Fatimas.

seem to realize that fact. When the Y. M. C. A. is pushing thrift propaganda it is doing something vital, helpful and tremendously important to the future welfare of the race. We are learning that even charity should have a scientific and business basis.

SAVINGS RATIO IS LOW, DECLARES LATSHAW.

"Sometimes in considering the great wealth of our nation amounting to $150,000,000,000 or a daily income of $20,000,000, we get the idea that this country is the most favored of all nations. This is true in many respects, but we rank fourteenth in the ratio of savings accounts."

"Our annual drink bill alone would buy the nation of Portugal and pay England's war bill for one year. One-tenth of all people who die in America are buried in pauper's graves. More than 10,000,000 of our population are within ten days of actual poverty and in New York City alone one-third of the population applies for charity in every seven years."

"The only way to beat the high cost of living is to quit living so high. Haste, false values and false pride are the eternal enemies of thrift. Industry, care, economy manages, providence plans and frugality saves—thrift embraces all these."

"Training in thrift should be part of the curriculum of every school and every man and woman. Thrift of mind, time and most of all, of money, needs greater emphasis."

THRIFT DOES NOT MEAN "TIGHTWAD."

"Thrift does not necessarily mean that a man should be a 'tightwad' no more than liberality means that a man should be a spendthrift. It only means applying business principles to the handling of one's income and expenditures."

Mr. Latshaw suggested the following schedule for a man's expenditures: Save twenty per cent, spend 50 per cent on living expenses, spend ten per cent to help others, spend ten per cent on self betterment and ten per cent on recreation. He pointed out a much more acute economic situation in this country in competition with Europe trained to the utmost efficiency in the great war.

An exhibit of placards and posters, telling thrift stories and including thrift lessons, has attracted considerable attention. Earning, spending, saving and investing are dealt with in some handbooks being distributed. They contain such statements as "Who earns feels himself master," "Who spends less than he earns wins," and "Where a wife doubts don't invest."

Cold Wave Sells Many Cords of Wood Here

The cold wave brought cheer to many a negro wood chopper in the vicinity of Waco.

Observing a light coat of snow on the ground and feeling the north pole breeze the wood choppers decided to load their wagons and peddle their wares in Waco.

"I'll take a cord," was usually the answer given the blacks as they paraded the streets and solicited business.

"Wood comes in mighty handy right now to keep the fire place going in full blast and besides an open fire is the most home-like thing we have," chorused many prominent citizens.

It is estimated that several hundred cords of fire wood was sold in Waco Monday.

EMPLOYEES OF SANGER BROTHERS HEAR TALK BY EXPERT ON THRIFT

David G. Latshaw made the third address in the "Thrift" campaign to over 200 of the people employed in the Sanger store last night at closing time. The employees of the store assembled in the "daylight" silk room and listened with a great deal of interest to Mr. Latshaw's address.

Demonstrating that he has given much careful thought and a great amount of study to thrift from many angles, Mr. Latshaw launched into his address, making his points appeal directly to his audience. "Thrift," said the speaker, "is a broad subject, but one of the most interesting. Its study brings you to the realization that the man, woman or child who practices it consistently develops into a better person because of such practice. Thrift means looking ahead; it means the sacrifice, perhaps, of some unnecessary things, but the simple fact that it means sacrifice makes it worth while, for that which is gained without some sacrifice on the part of the gainer is as a rule of little or no value."

THRIFT MEANS CONSERVING DOLLARS.

"Thrift, as applied to money," said Mr. Latshaw, "means the conserving of the dollar. First, have something to conserve."

THE BARBER TELLS THE TRUE VERSION

Bert Baker Relates an Interesting Story About the New Remedy, Plant Juice.

Plant Juice, the new herbal Stomach Remedy, is an internal remedy and you do not need to take any other medicine, believe me, you have taken one of the early steps toward thrift. Have the welfare of the firm you work for at heart, and this sort of thrift will make a better man or woman of you. If I were to hire people, I would rather hire the man with the savings account than the man without, for the man with the savings account nine times out of ten is the more efficient man," said the speaker.

"But let me impress this upon you," insisted Mr. Latshaw: "I do not preach 'tightwadism.' Don't be a tightwad or a miser; these people are of no value to anyone—their city, their nation, their world. Thrift as I would bring it to your minds, is the proper division of your income. It was John Wesley who said: 'Make all you can, save all you can, give all you can.' Make a budget for yourself, make your work, though it may seem as large, just as a big institution. Like the one you are employed in bandies its money. Itemize your budget in this manner: House, food, clothes, car fare, amusement, education, savings, insurance, general expense, savings. Figure what you can save, spend on clothes, on amusement, etc., always keeping in mind that you must save something."

"LIVE FROM SALARY IN BUSINESS WAY."

"This saving represents to you what the merchant must figure as his net profit, what he takes out of the business after he has paid all of his debts and overhead expenses, etc. In other words, live from your salary in a business way, always keeping in mind that you must save against a rainy day or toward the pleasure of a sunny day. Figure a fair amount for living and a fair amount for saving. By itemizing and keeping track of your personal expenditures you will quickly grasp the idea of true thrift and find that it is not a hard task to save something each week that will grow to be an amount worth while. Keeping track of the way your money goes is the first step in thrift."

In summing up Mr. Latshaw said: "Try the plan outlined from one pay day to the next. Faithfully write down every amount you spend. Write it in the total column and also in the column showing what it was spent for. Put some common sense into the care of your money. Spend less than you earn and you will get the thrift habit."

QUOTES AN EMINENT STUDENT OF THRIFT.

"Did you ever stop to think that the junk man thrives on what others throw away?" asked the speaker. He quoted Dr. Wiley's report made at the time he was associated with the United States employes' association, in which that eminent student said that fully one-third of the food prepared for the American family was wasted.

Thrift, however, according to Mr. Latshaw, goes much further than saving money. He stated that thrift had to do with the way persons employ their time; with the way they put forth their energy. Thrift means to make every minute count toward something worth while, toward doing your work better and accomplishing more in the same space of time, according to the speaker.

"Stop the leaks in your methods of doing things that tend toward inefficiency and you develop thrift," said Mr. Latshaw. "A lot of little leaks would sink a big ship and a lot of little leaks—wasted time being one of them—would ruin a big business. Thrift in your work makes better people from respect to their nation. Thrift as it develops you as an individual that will climb up to greater things."

"DON'T BE JUST A CLOCK WATCHER," SAYS LATSHAW.

"Don't be a 'clock-watcher,'" was one of the speaker's points. "If that is your attitude, your position, make your work, believe me, you have taken one of the early steps toward thrift. Have the welfare of the firm you work for at heart, and this sort of thrift will make a better man or woman of you. If I were to hire people, I would rather hire the man with the savings account than the man without, for the man with the savings account nine times out of ten is the more efficient man," said the speaker.

"But let me impress this upon you," insisted Mr. Latshaw: "I do not preach 'tightwadism.' Don't be a tightwad or a miser; these people are of no value to anyone—their city, their nation, their world. ## Planes Will Give Aerial Exhibition

By Associated Press.
San Diego, Cal., Jan. 15.—Four military airplanes, one of which will be equipped with wireless, will leave the army aerodrome here at daybreak tomorrow on a flight over the mountains to Calexico, Cal., whence an aerial expedition will be sent across the border into Lower California to endeavor to find trace of Lieut.-Col. Harry G. Bishop and Lieut. W. A. Robertson, Jr., army pilots who have been lost since last Wednesday.

Knocks Obstinate Coughs in a Hurry

A Simple Home-Made Remedy that Gets at the Cause.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hanging-on bronchial cough year after year, disturbing their sleep and making life disagreeable. It's so needless—there's an old home-made remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly.

Get from any druggist "2½ ounces of Pinex" (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also promptly loosens a dry or tight cough, stops the troublesome throat tickle, soothes the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relief comes almost instantly. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma there is nothing better. It tastes pleasant and keeps perfectly.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with gualiac and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"Red" Murray Signs Contract.

By Associated Press.

Elmira, N. Y., Jan. 15.—John (Red) Murray, for many years outfielder for the New York Giants and last season with Toronto International league team, today signed a contract with the New York Nationals for the coming year.

Yes, it pulled over 15,000 pounds in Waco Day parade—it's a Saxon, at Ward & Phillips Motor Co.—Adv.

BASEBALL PLAYERS MAY GO ON STRIKE

MAGNATES SHOULD GRANT REQUESTS, BELIEVE FRATERNITY MEMBERSHIP.

New York, Jan. 15.—A new phase of the threatened strike of the baseball players' fraternity developed here late today when it was learned that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and President David L. Fultz, of the players' organization, had been in conference relative to the proposed action of the fraternity members in refusing to sign 1917 baseball contracts until such time as the minor league magnates should grant requests made by the players.

Gompers was located at a local hotel just as he was leaving for Washington. "I have been in close touch," he said, "with the officers of the baseball players' fraternity for some little time and while the players' organization is not affiliated with us as yet, I am in full sympathy with their requests and actions and they have my moral support. I am deeply interested in the welfare of the ball players and they will have my support in any action that they may see fit in order to better existing conditions."

President D. B. Johnson of the American league arrived here late today from Chicago. He said he had come to attend the meeting of the schedule committee. The American league executive said he did not care to talk about the proposed strike but that if it eventuated the American league had enough players under contract to start the season and that others would be secured to fill any vacancy that might exist.

"I do not think," he said, "that the players of the major leagues will carry their contention so far as to strike."

Johnson also said that he was not in favor of the plan to divide the proceeds of the players' share of the world's series money among any except the competing club players. "To the victors belong the spoils," was the way he put it. He did say, however, that he thought the players had been receiving too much money for this series and that the American league proposed to remedy that by the rule prohibiting more than double the regular admission fee for world's series.

HAWAIIAN SINGERS AT ORPHEUM THEATRE ARE UNUSUAL ATTRACTION

Proving the biggest attraction of the season, the six Royal Hawaiian Serenaders at the Orpheum theatre during the first of this week, beginning yesterday and running through Wednesday, are expected to draw record crowds to the playhouse. Always a drawing card, these experts from far-away Hawaii are probably the best that have visited Waco in some time. With their quaint melodies, native songs and native music, the six stalwart Islanders capture the attention and admiration of the house from the beginning.

Next on the bill in point of excellence is the act of Hart, Weber and Hart. Three from "big-time" they might be called. All are women and what with their neat costumes and their extra good voices, they sing their way into the favor of the audience. They are absolutely good from start to finish. There is not a dragging moment throughout their number and when they pass behind the "drops" it is only after their time before the "spot" has been up some five minutes.

"TRAFFIC COP" UNUSUALLY SPICY NUMBER.

In presenting "The Traffic Cop," Link and Robinson offer an unusually spicy and witty selection. Whichever is the Traffic Cop, certainly has some laugh; a laugh so contagious that the hearer cannot help but join in; a laugh so peculiarly full of life and vitality that it throbs through the mind even after other acts dull its memory; in fact a laugh that has probably made its owner a small fortune. The woman in the act offers some unusually high class singing which in many instances is not appreciated but which last night seemed to have the proper audience. Judging by the applause which followed the pair from the stage, they were a big success.

Both of the other two acts of the program met with only half-hearted applause. One in which the "Hunter's Dogs" took part was clever on the part of the dogs. They were really good actors in their part.

Billied as "classy entertainers" Case and Alma hit the frigid zone immediately upon hitting the front of the stage. Judging from the meager and scattered applause they didn't show up "classy."

Altogether the bill at the Orpheum this week, though, is a good one in a number of points, barring the two unpleasant episodes of the program.

Farm in Harris County Brings $500,000

Houston, Jan. 15.—John Gaillard, once a poor boy from the banks of the Rio Grande, today sold his homestead on Goose creek, near this city, to the Gulf Production company for $500,000, of which $100,000 is cash. The homestead covers 262 acres. A provision is contained in the deed by which Gaillard retains the use of one-half acre on which stands the family cemetery. The Gaillards have lived on the farm 48 years.

Original Smart Set Shows Here; Waco Negroes Attend in Force

"HOW NEWTON PREPARED" IS TITLE OF SUCCESSFUL COMEDY AT AUDITORIUM.

Possessing at least the merit of novelty to the white theatre-goers and proving a boisterous delight to the hundreds of negroes, the Smart Set presented a negro musical comedy with a firmament of black stars to a top-heavy house at the Auditorium last night. The entire balcony had been reserved by the management for the negroes of the city and they proved loyal to the histrionic artists of their race.

"How Newton Prepared" was the title of the comedy, written by Whitney and Tull. The playwrights seemed to have attained their object, that of combining a touch of the ante-bellum with the ultra-modern negro. Elder Toots, a thoroughly likable old gray-haired, glory-hallelujah parson, exclaims the product of the old South, and a riparian, dusky sufragee was the other extreme. With this variety of characters and a plentiful mixture of some dancing and jokes, there was no lack of volume to the production. There were twenty-six in the cast.

PLAY BUILT AROUND PREPAREDNESS THEME.

The fun and frolic of this dusky girl show is built around a preparedness theme, the making of a soldier for Uncle Sammie out of a richly Southern negro whose chief propensity is to be "prepared" for a "possum dinner" and whose chief delight is not p-e-a-c-e, but p-l-e-a-s-u-r-e. This gives a chance to swing the setting from a plantation to a wharf scene where negro stevedores did each his small dancing stunt. Adding the only variety to the race scheme of the play was a Mexican hombre and his senorita. These two wily denizens of the Villa revolution were supposed to furnish a motif as to why Uncle Sam should prepare.

Though quite different from what the average theatre-goer expects from negro talent, the offering last night indicates that the colored race is not necessarily limited to the conventional minstrel in the show line. The rich melody of the ditty is still mostly well retained in the humorizing of the play, and the musical comedy at least affords a greater latitude of talent than minstrelsy. The ensembles with the dozen or more dusky brown chorus girls invariably got heavy applause from the balconies.

"A World of Pleasure."

From the time a girl is born her greatest interest is her clothes, including everything from her head to her feet, for morning, afternoon and evening. This admirable form of vanity of every American girl of the shop or store, has been handed down to her by her mother and her mother in turn inherited the same insatiable desire for pretty clothes from her mother, perhaps less extravagant in style a half century ago than now, that being the only difference between mother and daughter.

Newspaper and magazine editors, department store managers, and custom modistes all look patronizingly on the woman of today. Even theatrical managers have long since recognized the potentialities in stage costumes, for isn't it a fact that more than 75 per cent of all the theatregoers are women? Then why shouldn't the theatre manager, with his unlimited money, dress the actresses of today in the height of fashion?

Always alert to the public's demands the theatrical manager was quick to take advantage of the dress vogue, and today women of the stage rival the best dressed women of society. In fact, the big musical comedy company of today is really a traveling fashion show, each female member being a model for some original gown or hat, designed and created by one of New York's smartest costumers and reflecting the styles shown in the shops of Fifth Avenue.

The ladies of this city will have the opportunity of seeing what is always considered the best dressed company of girls on the American stage on January 18 when "A World of Pleasure" comes to the Auditorium.

"Experience."

The shortest "big" part ever written is that of "Passion" in George V. Hobart's morality drama, "Experience," which comes to the Auditorium January 22 and 23.

Passion is without exception one of the most impressive and picturesque plays ever conceived by an author. She makes her entrance bathed in a crimson light and a few diaphanous draperies of purple and scarlet. There is soft music of a weird, Oriental nature. Her advent creates a sensation, for they turn off all the lights and give her the center of the stage with a scarlet halo of light around her.

Before "Passion" enters, the audience is prepared for her appearance. This is one of the playwright's—to make the audience anticipate something that is going to happen. Intoxication, played by a beautiful girl, comes on first, to greet Youth as he drinks the wine-glass to the dregs. Then—carrying out the symbolism of Mr. Hobart's play—enters "Passion." Her lines are brief, vivid, and to the point.

HIPPODROME.

"The Pride of the Clan."

The Massachusetts coast at Marblehead was chosen for the staging of the exterior scenes of the new Mary Pickford picture, "The Pride of the Clan," which will show at the Hippodrome theatre today only. On the rocky Marblehead shores Miss Pickford and the members of her company lived for several months making the new picture under the direction of Maurice Turner, the famous French producer whose work ranks among the most artistic ever done. In one of the incidents of the story Miss Pickford appears on a half sunken fishing boat, and in this scene she is forced to enact bits of realism which proved distinctly real and which the camera recorded faithfully. The craft, a very rickety and water-soaked veteran, sprung a leak just as the important part of the scene was being filmed and it was only after much difficulty that Mr. Tourneur saved his famous star. Many of the scenes required the little girl to get severe wettings, and her maid was kept busy laying out dry clothes for her between scenes.

The story is of Margaret McTavish, a little lass whose father's death at sea makes her leader of the clan. How she rules her people as she thinks her father would wish, and how the whole course of her life is changed when her sweetheart, Jamie comes, let his own, makes up the sweet story of a little girl's heart.

ACTION OF FULTZ IN APPLYING FOR CHARTER MEETS WITH APPROVAL

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—The action of David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, in applying to the American Federation of Labor for a charter met with the favor of the dozen or more members of the fraternity residing in and near Chicago.

Catcher Archer, a member of the Chicago National league club, tonight said that he was in full sympathy with the fraternity and would walk out if Fultz called a strike. A meeting of the fraternity members is scheduled here tomorrow night at which President Fultz's views will be set forth in the form of a letter written from New York. Al Demaree, a member of the Philadelphia Na-

Police Graft Charges Being Investigated

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—The grand jury today began its investigation of the police graft charges made by state's Attorney Hoxne and involving former Superintendent of Police C. C. Healey.

You can't name one part of its mechanism that is not standard—it's a Saxon, at Ward & Phillips Motor Co.—Adv.

Rheumatism an Insidious Disease; Begins with Insignificant Pains

Real Torture Bound to Follow if the First Warnings Are Not Heeded.

Anyone afflicted with the pangs of Rheumatism will tell you that the first pains were hardly noticeable. Slight at first, in fact too insignificant to be heeded, pains increasing very gradually, the disease had them firmly in its grasp before they realized that they were its victim.

Those who have been trying liniments and other external applications will find that they have not reached the cause of the trouble, and that their Rheumatism is back with them again, increasing in severity as the days go by.

Y. W. C. A. Members to Hear Latshaw Tonight

Members of the Waco Y. W. C. A. will hear an address at 8 o'clock tonight from Dr. David G. Latshaw of New York, who is conducting the thrift campaign in Waco.

The lecture will be based on the subject of "Thrift." Dr. Latshaw has a message, those who have heard him claim, and the talk tonight is expected to be interesting.

Meeting of Directors of Y. M. B. L. Tonight

A meeting of directors of the Y. M. B. L. will be held tonight at the rooms on Austin street.
There will be discussion of the poll tax campaign, railroad to Waco from Palestine, and possibly other matters. The directors are expecting a busy meeting.

ADDRESS ON THRIFT IS GIVEN ROTARIANS BY DAVID G. LATSHAW

TALKS ARE MADE BY DR. S. J. PORTER OF SAN ANTONIO AND WILL D. LACY—UNUSUALLY GOOD ATTENDANCE.

Waco Rotarians enjoyed a practical talk from Dr. David G. Latshaw of New York, Dr. S. J. Porter of San Antonio and Will Lacy of Waco yesterday at the 12:15 noon meeting at the Hotel Raleigh. The attendance was unusually good.

Dr. Latshaw spoke on the thrift campaign which is in progress here at present. He urged the need of such campaigns, and said that the thrift campaigns put into practice meant not only the saving of money, but meant in a word the conservation and best use of body, mind, time and all that a man possesses.

Dr. S. J. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist church of San Antonio, spoke of service, the thing for which Rotary is organized. He said that this service could be put into every life, every day, and everywhere, to the uplift, betterment and happiness of the race; it could be made to permeate business and professional life and every phase of human activities.

STRESSES NEED OF CONNECTING ROADS.

Will Lacy stressed the need of connecting up in proper manner the city streets with country roads, saying that gaps which existed at the city limits in places were working hardships and were useless. These gaps should be closed, he urged. Several such places are declared to exist in the city, at the outskirts, among these being Elm street, South Fifth, Speight, Columbus and others.

At the next meeting the question of an assessment of $1 per quarter, to be used as an entertainment fund, will be voted on.

At the meeting yesterday toastmaster was James R. Wright, principal resident speaker Will Lacy, while the thought for the day was presented by H. P. Manley.

Special efforts will be made at the next meeting to get even a larger attendance than usual, owing to the pending question of an entertainment fund.

WINDROW AND NAMAN LEAVE FOR AUSTIN ON GOOD ROADS MEET

County Engineer R. J. Windrow and W. W. Naman, who were selected by the special county bond issue good roads committee of the Y. M. B. L. to go to Austin in connection with the plan to secure a vote on extending the good roads system over the county, will leave tonight for the capital on this mission.

As matters now stand, there are obstacles in the way of getting to a vote on the matter of county-wide road improvement, owing to the fact that two or three precincts already have issued bonds for this purpose. Messrs. Windrow and Naman will confer with the attorney general's department on this matter and will seek to find some way of avoiding the legal difficulties now in the path of the important project.

It is hoped that as a result of their visit to Austin the way will be cleared of some of the difficulties which have appeared.

Y. M. B. L. Committee to Push Payment of Poll Taxes

It was decided to prosecute a vigorous campaign to secure payment of poll taxes between now and January 31, at a meeting yesterday afternoon of the Y. M. B. L. committee which wants to see the city and county make a proper showing, one in keeping with other large cities and populous counties of Texas.

Newspapers, moving pictures and posters will be used largely in prosecuting the campaign, and the committee yesterday afternoon expressed appreciation of the aid already extended by the newspapers.

It was brought out in the discussion yesterday that several important matters will be voted on in the forthcoming elections during the year, probably the matter of extending the county road system. Without poll tax receipts residents cannot vote.

Present at the meeting yesterday were the following members of the Y. M. B. L. committee: Chairman T. H. Williams, E. McIver Ross, William Edmond, F. M. Fillingim and E. A. White.

Beware the Cold Storage Egg! In his work on food and dietetics Doctor Robert Hutchison says, "the absence of carbohydrates prevents eggs from being in any sense a complete food." This refers to the fresh egg—the egg with a clean bill of health.

What would the Doctor say of the modern cold storage egg? At present prices two eggs cost ten cents—and the egg is not a complete food! Something must be eaten with it to supply the needed carbohydrates. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits, with cream or milk, make a complete, perfect meal at a cost of four or five cents. ## Much Building Is Going on in Waco

Without waiting for springtime to appear there is much building going on in the additions to Waco, and it now is a settled fact that when spring comes there will be yet more in this line.

Quite a number of cottages have been started in the various additions. Owners will get busy with the coming of spring, and the announcement is that quite a number of cottages will be built. A few already have been put up, and it is thought that the improvement of Sanger avenue will encourage this section to build up rapidly, especially as there is also prospect of an active effort for a street car line to the section adjoining it on the southeast, in addition to the line now operated from Twenty-eighth street.

With the construction of the Central Texas Baptist sanitarium it is expected that there will be noted a revival in building nearby, as the street car is to be extended to that section.

There is some building going on on Bell's Hill, in South and East Waco, while in North Waco there has been a quiet and steady improvement.

The business area improvement has been noted, with more development in sight.

It is thought that several of the additions which now are building up so rapidly will be taken into the city by the time the next census is secured for Waco, and this will help the showing which Waco is expected to make; many are predicting that Waco will show more than 100 per cent improvement over the last census, insofar as population is concerned.

New Bulletins Added to Library Collection

Some important bulletins recently have been added to the collection in the Waco public library.

Bulletins may be borrowed just like books, and under the same conditions. The library is free to everybody. Hours are 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. On Sundays the reading rooms are open, also since the fiscal history of Texas written by Wm. Gough in 1852.

Authentic Report on Smallpox; Rumors Are Vastly Exaggerated; Situation Is Nothing Alarming

Giving details of the smallpox situation the daily report submitted by City Health Commissioner W. H. Cockcroft last night was as follows:
Total number of cases since November 21, 1915, 99. No new cases since the report of Sunday. Number in hospital, 39; number outside of hospital and under quarantine, 2.
Conditions are improving. The health department is working day and night to completely stamp out the disease. It is felt that there is no need for alarm.

Because of exaggerated rumors as to smallpox in Waco, there was held yesterday morning a joint meeting of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, board of health and city commission, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

MAY ASK REPRESENTATIVE OF STATE HERE.

After the meeting it was stated positively that if the rumors persist, Waco will ask the state health board to send a representative here to examine fully into the situation and make a statement.

One Waco man yesterday said that he had heard rumors that there were more cases in Waco during one day than have actually developed, according to the records, since the beginning last May, this total since that time reaching to only a little above one hundred cases for the whole time.

STATEMENT GIVEN REGARDING DISEASE.

Following the meeting yesterday morning President J. M. Penland of the Chamber of Commerce gave out the following statement:

"On investigation it was found that the situation is well in hand and that the city officials are doing everything possible to stamp out entirely the few cases of smallpox which now exist."

"A great many false rumors are current and have been circulated in Waco and in the towns surrounding Waco as to the real situation, and in discussing the matter this morning it was found that many rumors were caused by false alarms being phoned in to the health department that a suspected case of smallpox was found at such and such a number of some street, and that the physician responding to the call would not only fail to find a case of smallpox, but in most every case would fail to find any illness of any character whatsoever at the number given, and in his efforts to locate the case would visit every house in the vicinity and the report would become current on adjoining streets that everybody on the street visited by him was going to be quarantined for smallpox, while as a matter of fact, the alarm was false and no case existed."

"The city authorities have made ample provision in the detention hospital for the proper care of such cases as exist, and have experienced nurses there to care for the patients, and we find there are at this time only forty-two cases in the hospital, thirty-five of which are convalescing, and three cases outside of the hospital quarantined in their own homes."

"Practically all of the cases outside of the three cases quarantine in their homes are colored."

Sheriff Is Sure Vaccination Has Taken

Fear that blood poison had set in from a vaccination caused doctors to work with Sheriff S. S. Fleming for more than two hours Sunday afternoon.

According to the sheriff his arm and entire left side and down to the knee became badly swollen. He suffered intense pain until relief came.

"I am perfectly satisfied that it took," said the sheriff Monday in discussing the incident.

Auto Licenses Sell Despite Bad Weather

The cold weather did not deter the automobile business in McLennan county Monday if the number of automobile licenses granted is any indication. There were six new car owners who took out permits to operate automobiles.
